

Music Achievement 2011-2012

In 2011-2012, Ying Wa College Music Teams participated in the Hong Kong Schools Music Festival, Hong Kong Youth Music Interflows, Winterband Festival and New Tune Chinese Music Contest winning trophies, championships and prizes. In February 2012, the College Senior Mixed Choir was invited to the 2nd CCC Choir Festival performing in the Chapel of the Chinese University. In April 2012, the College String and Chinese Orchestra together with Brass Ensemble was invited to perform in the Open Day of the Hong Kong Government House. In May 2012, the College Senior Mixed Choral Group performed the premiere work composed by alumni Dr Ng Wah-hei in the Hong Kong Institute of Education. In addition, Mr Jeremy Williams from Australia and Dr Paula Holcomb from U.S.A. were invited to conduct masterclasses for the College Orchestra and Band in November 2011. In December 2011, Dr Tim Lautzenheiser from U.S.A. was invited to hold masterclass on "Music Talent and Leadership" for the College Band, Catholic High School Band (Petaling Jaya) from Malaysia and five different school concert bands from Singapore and Malaysia.

College Band, the winner of Gold Prize in Winterband Festival and winner of Gold Prize in Hong Kong Youth Music Interflows Symphonic Band Contest, November 2011.

College String Orchestra, the winner of Miss Margaret Money Memorial Prize and Miss Margaret Money Memorial Trophy in Hong Kong Schools Music Festival, March 2012.

College Senior Mixed Choir with True Light Girls' College, performing in the 2nd Church of Christ in China Choir Festival, February 2011.

College Brass Ensemble, String and Chinese Orchestra, performing in the Open Day of the Hong Kong Government House, April 2012.